

Journey Management apps

Help you know where you need to be and what's going on around you

Triplt manages your itineraries and lets you compare travel schedules, share destination information and publish plans to personal social networks such as Facebook and LinkedIn

Frommer's Remix helps you create a custom travel guide based on your Triplt itinerary and your favorite interests

The U.S. Transportation Security Administration app is a must for smooth travel in and out of this major market

FlightCaster or FlightTrack Pro will support all irreplaceable flight trackers

Google Maps is a modern classic, and for good reason

Concierge apps

Do all sorts of things for you

TripList or Packing List, can help you start your trip with your shoe on the right foot (and in the right suitcase)

Triplingo lets you tailor your language-learning experience to your immediate needs, and includes a healthy dose of local slang

XE Currency or Oanda can quickly calculate currency conversions, including bank or credit card charges

SmartTraveler provides frequently updated official country information, travel alerts, travel warnings, maps, U.S. embassy locations and more from the U.S. Department of State

Delivery.com can help you find food delivery when room service isn't in your budget

Taxi Magic can help you find, track and pay for a taxi

Limos.com, a ground transportation marketplace, allows you to take a different route and book a private car, often at the same price as a taxi

Check Please will take the stress out of calculating your waiter's tip or splitting the bill with colleagues

Genius Scan lets you quickly capture an image of a receipt and convert it to PDF for your expenses iPassConnect connects subscribers to wi-fi hotspots around the world

GateGuru helps travelers find the nearest airport gift shop (not forgetting that special trinket for your kids!) or where to get the best pre-boarding bagels

Lifestyle apps

Keep you in touch with your home life and personal priorities

Cozi helps manage your family calendar, shopping lists, “to do” lists and family journal while you're on the go

SleepStream 2 offers a range of “soundscapes” to aid relaxation or becoming alert when jet lagged

HuluPlus, Justin.tv, Netflix, Uverse Mobile and similar apps help you manage television programming remotely

Tru, Skype Mobile and Tango allow those overseas to enjoy a leisurely conversation with family for little or no cost (if your mobile is connected to wireless Internet, or in Tru's case even over 3G)

OpenTable simplifies the task of finding a restaurant and making an instant reservation

Eat This Not That helps you ward off road-warrior “excess baggage” by proposing healthy food swaps

Location Intelligence apps

Incorporate GPS with consumer reviews to help you make the most of where you are standing

Yelp, AroundMe and Urban Spoon help you find needed services like a dry cleaner or ATM and places like a subway station or a restaurant

Alfred uses artificial intelligence to recommend restaurants nearby based on the restaurants you like near home

Glympse allows you to capture your GPS location and send it via text to someone along with a message

Deal-of-the-Day apps

Help you make the most of special opportunities

Groupon and Living Social deliver location-specific, short-shelf-life deals directly to your phone, letting you squeeze more out of your travel budget
