Rewarding business travel.

With smart products and services, you will save time and money when booking trips all over the world. With our powerful technologies such as our digital booking platforms, you will save with each booking your travelers make. At the same time, they will help you keep an overview of travel costs and you won't miss any expenses anymore.

With our booking platform, your travelers don't have to look or book anywhere else. We help them comply with the guidelines your organization has defined for business travel. We integrate your travel policy directly into our booking platform.

Always the best offer.

As a part of BCD Travel, we use our purchasing volume to offer you the best deals for your business travel. Choose from millions of travel options for your business travel, because we have direct connections and partnerships with airlines (such as KLM, Lufthansa), low-cost carriers (such as Ryanair, EasyJet), rental car companies, hotel chains and accommodation portals such as Booking.com, Expedia and HRS.

Report. Analyze. Save.

It's easy to find new ways to save even more now that you won't miss any expenses for business trips. Our statistics and reporting help you visualize your expenses and bookings. Our customer success managers are there to support you with expert advice to drive your success.

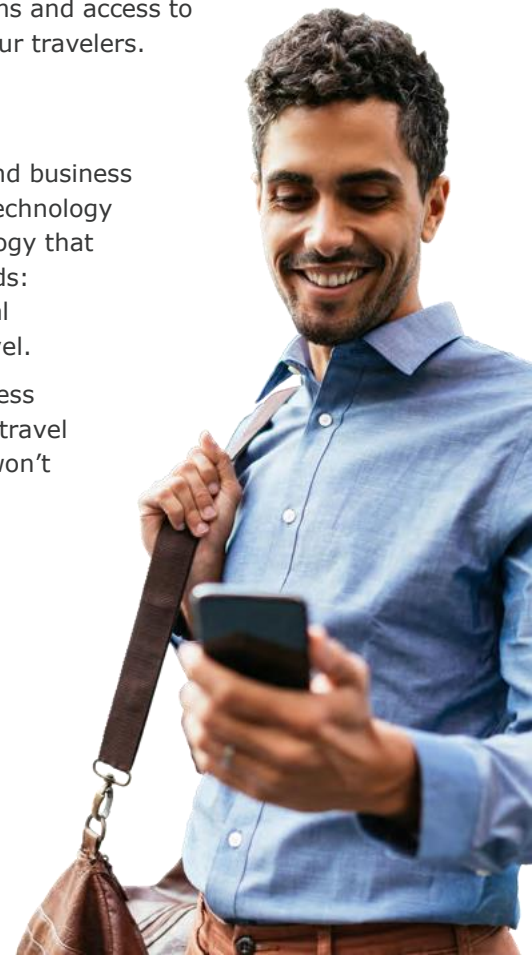

Simple and comfortable business travel

Simplify travel bookings and management for all employees in your company. Our complete packages help you book in a simple and effective manner, manage expenses and ensure the safety of travelers. Intuitive tools such as our booking platforms and access to the best travel options mean real time savings for your travelers.

There is no either-or. With us, you get it all.

Business travel is important to drive your personal and business success. So why should you be satisfied with good technology but bad service? Or with good support but a technology that leaves a lot to be desired? Get the best of both worlds: reliable service from real experts and powerful digital technologies to book and manage your business travel.

Our experts help you get the most out of your business travel or even your entire travel budget. They know travel like no one else in the world of business. Soon you won't want to go without this service anymore.

We consider business travel an opportunity to boost your company success. With a return on investment of 1:11 euros, business travel is a rewarding activity for your company. However, to make the most of your business travel expenses, you will need the right products, services and advice.

This is what we are here for. With innovative products, reliable service and experienced employees, we make business travel safe, sustainable, highly rewarding and above all simple for everyone in your company.

Safe and sustainable business travel.

The world of business travel is constantly changing. New service providers, new options, new channels and platforms to book and manage your trips. Other factors such as travel risks also drive change and impact those who book or manage business travel. Get the support you need to take action at any time and to keep your travelers safe and healthy.

Approval process

Our integrated approval process allows you to take fast action to prevent your employees from traveling to high-risk countries.

Risk alerts and "I'm safe" feature

Our travel app warns about incidents and lets travelers inform you that they are safe with the "I'm safe" feature.

24/7 emergency service

24/7 support from experienced agents to get your travelers to their destination or back home, to their family and friends.

A booking platform travelers love to use

Our booking platform is easy to use, does not require software installation and comprises millions of travel options for flights, hotels and rental cars.

Trusted advice from real travel experts

Our experts help you get the most out of your business travel. They know about traveling like no one else in the business. You won't want to do without this service anymore!

Service packages

All our plans are based on a membership fee and a fee for airfares and train tickets. Booking hotels and rental cars is always free of charge.
