PRESS RELEASE

BCD TRAVEL TO PARTNER WITH FLEXIBLE WORKPLACE PROVIDER REGUS

Global agreement gives BCD Travel travelers convenient access to business lounges

ATLANTA, February 24, 2011 – BCD Travel, the third-largest corporate travel management company worldwide, today announced it has signed an agreement with Regus, the world's leading provider of flexible workplace solutions.

Under the agreement, BCD Travel travelers will receive convenient access to prestigious office space, meeting rooms and other professional services through the Regus Businessworld membership program. Additional benefits of the agreement for BCD Travel clients include discounts on Regus office use, virtual office support packages and Delta Sky Club or American Admirals Club meeting rooms.

“BCD Travel continually seeks to expand the breadth of services we can offer our travelers,” said Dave Mitchell, vice president of supplier relations with BCD Travel. “Regus’ business lounges, meeting spaces and administrative support provide a way for our travelers to have all the comforts and benefits of their usual workplace, even when they’re thousands of miles from home. By partnering with Regus, we can help our clients get the most of out of their time on the road.”
