Getting back to business travel
At the airport

As you resume business travel, information will be at the heart of your defenses against COVID-19. Travel managers can provide you with timely and relevant information, particularly when deploying travel management company (TMC) backed apps like BCD Travel's TripSource®. We've shared some extra advice and tips you can use throughout your trip to support a seamless and safe experience when away from home.

Before arriving at the airport
- Ensure you are well enough to travel.
- Familiarise yourself with the latest hygiene and safety protocols at both your origin and destination even if you use either airport regularly, as these are continually changing.
- Prepare a COVID-19 travel pack, comprising two face masks, gloves, hand sanitizer and wipes.
- Make sure you have any documentation to prove you are healthy enough to travel.
- Take any COVID-19 tests required by the destination within the specified timeframe.

Check-in
- Arrive earlier than usual, as you'll spend more time being processed.
- Make sure you know of any changes to your airline's check-in procedures.
- Self-drop and self-tag checked bags.
- Be prepared to check in hand luggage.
- If checking in at the airport, try to use a contactless, self-service kiosk.
- Check-in online or via the airline's app before arrival.

Security and immigration
- Keep your distance when queuing.
- Be prepared for a different security experience. Find out what's changed at each airport.
- Organize your carry-bags to ensure a smoother security experience.

In the departure lounge
- Keep your distance from other travelers at all times.
- Use restaurant apps to pre-order food and beverages.
- Use contactless payment for all purchases.
- Don't expect airline lounges to be open. Those that are may offer limited service only.
- Concierge robots can provide a contactless source of airport information.

Throughout the terminal
- Take note of signage reminding of good hygiene practices.
- Don't be alarmed by staff wearing helmets and masks; they're checking passenger temperatures.
- Be prepared to be stopped by a staff member. They may be concerned about your temperature.

At the gate
- Be ready to wear a face mask and gloves.
- You may be required to prove you are fit to travel.
- Remember, you may need to make a contactless presentation of your boarding card and ID/passport.
- Listen carefully for announcements, as many airlines have changed their boarding procedures. Know your seat number and zone.

Baggage hall
- Wear gloves and/or sanitize handles after collecting bags from carousel.
